Nashville Scene

Twisters put on a three-hour stage show at the Harbor Lights Center, San Francisco. . . . WLLY, Wilson, N. C., has switched to an all country format. It needs records. Jim Bryan is music director. . . . Skeeter Dodd of WFCM, Winston-Salem, N. C., is running a column in the Southern Observer dedicated to country music. . . . Don Law is continuing a new session with Mountain Henson Cargill. . . . When John Hartford signs the Main Point in Bryn Mawr, Pa., will be the first combination folk-country artist. Up to now the place has featured outstanding artists in either field, ranging from Janis Ian and Buffy Sainte-Marie to Bill Monroe and Doc Watson. ABC Records, in co-operation with Pamper Music, has released Dave Kirby's first recording on that label. It's "Overnite," b-w "The Rumor." The session was handled by Bill Lowery. Kirby now plans to move to Nashville from his New Mexico home.

United Artists' Bobby Lewis is off on his first tour of the West Coast after some Texas dates. He swings back through New Mexico and Oklahoma about the time his next single is released. . . . Jerry Naylor and Tex Williams are due at the Nashville Club in New York. . . . Mary Taylor plays Cactus Pete's at Jackpot, Nev., late in the month, and then moves to Portland, Ore. . . . Wanda Jackson & Her Party Timers are playing Mr. Lucky's, Phoenix. . . . Hank Thompson & the Brazos Valley Boys are off to the Far East for the second time in less than a year. Liberty artist Jimmy Bryant played the KBQQ Country Caravan Shows in Southern California. . . . Ebb Harrison Sr., president of Golden Records, has signed an exclusive foreign lease with Star Record Industries, Pty, of Johannesburg, South Africa, to handle their catalog of artist and records. The first release will be the Carr Brothers, "Too Old to Cry." . . . Minnie Pearl appears on "Operation Entertainment" on ABC-TV, Jan. 26. Wanda Jackson will be on the "Joey Bishop Show" Feb. 22.

BILL WILLIAMS

'Tosca' Opens

With Placido Domingo, Beverly Sills, Elaine Bonazzi and Norman Treigle. Richard Strauss' "Der Rosenkavalier" on March 9 will feature Otto Eddelmann, Ingrid Bjoner, Patricia Brooks and Mildred Miller. Verdi's "La Traviata" with Anna Moffo, John Alexander and Sherrill Milnes closes the festival on March 10.

Bluegrass Fest

Among those on hand will be from 60 to 70 musicians who at one time or another played in Monroe's band and learned the true bluegrass style from him.

Country Music

Nashville Scene

Dalton, Ga., was the first of the Atlanta suburbs to be utilized in a new series to expose new country acts. WPLO's Rick Flirt took part in the on-the-country show which featured such acts as Jerry Braswell, the Stone Mountain Ramblers, Patricia Campbell, Sweetmasters and the Bolton County Band. Del Reeves made a hurried trip to the West Coast with his manager-booker, Hubert Long, for a screen test. The proposed part is for an independent production at Universal Studios.

Dewey Groom, his 11-piece western band, Janet McBride and Vern Stovall are now being featured on Channel 33 in Dallas on a weekly (Friday) one-hour color TV show. Dewey has asked any artist in area to drop in and guest on the show.

Don West has finished an album, "Country Girl," from the title of her hit single. These are all country songs, a departure from her swing toward country-pop as of late. Sam Collins arranged it all. . . . The Merle Haggard show set for Grand Rapids, Lansing and Flint on this coming weekend, with a leading cast of Bonnie Owens, Glen Campbell, Red Simpson and Kay Adams. . . .

Ayvonne Jones, of Longview, Tex., has joined the Jimmie Klein agency here, and has booked into Puerto Rico in May with Alex Houston. She has all the equipment for success. . . . Johnny Carson, imperial artist, leaves for Germany May 1. His new release, just out, "I Still Didn't Have the Sense to Go." . . . Larry LaPole who records for the West Wind label, has a record going strong in the Twin Cities and other Midwestern spots. It's being plugged by Johnny Harlow of WMIN Radio, St. Paul.

Deca's Max Powell, still on the road with Webb Pierce, has a strong contingent in "Night Life Queen," produced by Owen Bradley. . . . Charlie Lamb now is doing promotion for Doc Williams, 33-year veteran of country music. Williams has a publishing firm, a mail order guitar course, Wheeling Records and a few other things. His daughter, Karen McKeithen, records for the Wheeling label, just having cut her first session at Columbia here. . . . Hubert Long, in his capacity as president of the Country Music Association (CMA), met in New York with the National Entertainment Committee of the President's Council on Youth Opportunity. CMA will co-operate with the national effort to bring members of the disadvantaged group into closer proximity with the better things of life.

A show in Knoxville last week was sold out, forcing an impromptu matinee. On the bill were Ray Price, Loretta Lynn, Claude Gray and the Graymen, Conway Twitty, Doyle Wilburn and Tammy Wynette. . . . A fund-raising benefit for the blind received an unexpected assist by a blind singer at Lexington, Ky. The show was the annual performance for the Kentucky Eye Research Institute. The featured entertainers were the Stonemans. Linda Meader, the blind girl, traveled 60 miles to catch the show, and was invited to appear with the famous family. . . . Glen Campbell has invited the Stonemans to appear on his summer replacement series on CBS. . . . Jeannie Seely paid an unexpected visit to Atlanta and joined her close friend, Dottie West, on stage at the Playroom. As a result of their performance, they'll play the club together New Year's Eve. . . . Joyce Bush, secretary-treasurer of Tree Publishing Co., is doing well now following the birth of a healthy daughter, Linda. Linda was born April 16 and will join her mother in 16 years. . . . Columbia's David Hart is listed for a series of TV appearances while here this week for a recording session under the auspices of Frank Jones.

Country music got double shot-in-the-arm this past week as two music executives got with the youngsters of the city. RCA Victor's Danny Davis spent the better part of an afternoon with teenagers from Peabody High School to explain trends in music, while Harald Hilt of Columbia hosted a string of exchange students from Chicago, giving them the guided tour of the studios. . . . The KDAY Star Spectacular next week (Tuesday) features Dolly Parton, Bobby Bare, Porter Wagoner and the Wagonmasters, Tom T. Hall, Jimmy Newman, Dave Dudley and the Roadrunners. That's at Lubbock, Tex. Also in Lubbock, the Maverick Lounge has re-opened, this time as an all-country club. K-Ark's Euel Daniel and his band performed. He then was engaged to play at the Maverick each week, and each Sunday the club will have a battle of bands. . . . Charlie Phillips and his band have opened a new club at Amarillo. It's known as the Lake Side.

Maria Dallas, the biggest name in music in Australia and New Zealand, flew into Nashville for a recording session with Felton Jarvis. . . . A surprise birthday party was held for John D. Loudermilk, given by close friends at the Back Room. It included a three-tiered cake with 14 gold records. . . . Marion Worth returns to work May 4 with a date in her home town of Birmingham. She had been mending from major surgery. . . . Jim Ed Brown honored at a birthday party on the "Ralph Emery Show" and given accolades from the city. Heavy rains failed to keep crowds away from the new Roanoke-Lamb Civic Center for a package that included Hank Williams Jr., Stonewall Jackson, the Stonemans. It was sponsored by WSQ, with over 6,000 in attendance. An autograph party at the new 100 Oaks Shopping Center in Nashville featured George Hamilton IV, John Hartford and Skeeter Davis.

Tree's Stapp Wins 'Metronome' Award

NASHVILLE — Jack Stapp, president of Tree Publishing, was named winner of the "Metronome" award at the conclusion of the convention here last week.

Mayor Beverly in presenting the award cited Stapp as the individual who had contributed the most to the growth of music in Nashville during the preceding 12 months. Among other things, Stapp had been the person primarily responsible for bringing about network televising of the CMA awards show. He also had expanded his own company in many areas and had worked with others in the overall promotion of the music scene.

The presentation, a surprise, was made on the stage of the "Opry." Stapp had been called there ostensibly to be a part of a group picture involving all past managers of the "Grand Ole Opry."

Monument's Davis Will Do Radio Series for Military

NASHVILLE — Tex Davis, promotion director for Monument's country product, will do a series of radio shows for the armed forces radio and TV service.

Fred Foster, Monument president, said the show will emanate from here, and will feature top stars of the music industry. Davis says the show will be aired on 350 stations in some 35 countries throughout the world. The show's listening audience has been estimated at 500-million.

The "Tex Davis Show" will feature such artists as Ray Stevens, who will guest on the first show. Stevens, a Monument artist, currently has a new single, "The Great Escape," and an LP, "Even Stevens." Monument engineer Jim Malloy will work the board.

COLLECTION

Arts & Charts

The complete Country Music Charts exactly as they appeared in Billboard magazine from 1944 to the present, in high resolution, taken from the celebrated magazine's pages.

From the owner of COUNTRY MUSIC DATABASE® who has one of the largest collections in the world (with records, videos, magazines, books and comics) comes his latest epic project!

More than 70 years of Country Music Charts from the beginning. The volumes are published in random order (like Marvel's beautiful series "The Epic Collection").
